THE TRI-TOWNSHIP PUBLIC LIBRARY DISTRICT'S HISTORY

The Tri-Township Public Library District has been in existence since June 16, 1975 as a reading center affiliated with the Illinois Heartland Library System and serving the City of Troy and its environs. The Reading Center began as a committee from the Woman's Club of Troy. The Library board, operating solely upon donations and fund raising events, was successful at efforts to obtain an adequate building, land and pay for the services of two ladies who served as librarians. Funding was mainly from the Lion's Club, The Woman's Club of Troy, McDonnell-Douglas Charity Trust Fund, Revenue Sharing funds from the City and Township, and various private donations.

The founding dream was to produce a tax supported library district serving all of the area surrounding the City of Troy. Several attempts to pass a referendum were made. The first attempt was made on August 8, 1978 and the second was March 16, 1982. The boundaries of the Tri-Township Park District, which included all of the City of Troy and some outlying areas were chosen both times as the Library's boundaries. On both occasions, the referendum passed in the City, but failed by a narrow margin in the rural areas.

In April 1986, the Reading Center Board sought a Project PLUS Grant from the State of Illinois. The grant was awarded July 1, 1986, and carried with it a requirement to ask for a referendum in April 1987. The grant was used to fund the salary for a qualified Library Director, library materials and office equipment. The district establishment referendum passed on April 7, 1987 using the City limit of Troy as its boundaries. An annexation referendum to expand the library boundary was passed on March 8, 1988.

In 1990 the Library Board of Trustees began to search for adequate housing. It was decided that a new library facility could be built on the existing grounds. After visiting over 14 libraries, the new facility began to take shape. A Live & Learn Grant from the State of Illinois was secured along with mortgages from rural Economic Development and donations from the Friends of the Library. The contractor began construction in October 1994, and completed the project in July 16, 1995.

TRI-TOWNSHIP PUBLIC LIBRARY PHILOSOPHY AND PRINCIPLES

BOARD MEMBERSHIP:

Persons elected to the Board of Trustees should be committed to the Library's purpose and have time to give to its affairs; who will maintain an awareness of modern library service in preparation for making knowledgeable decisions in the interest of a better library; and who will contribute independent thought and work cooperatively with other Board members for the common good of the Library.

LIBRARY PURPOSE AND FUNCTION:

The Board believes that a democratic society must have informed citizens; that people can better achieve enrichment and fulfillment through the use of available information and knowledge; and that the public library is the focal point in the community for both formal and informal association with information and ideas.

The Library has concurrent responsibilities to provide materials and services to the individual citizen, to community organizations, to governmental and social agencies, and to business and industry. Its resources and services must be available to the entire population regardless of age, sex, or physical condition; regardless of economic, ethnic, religious, or political status.

FINANCE

The Library must operate within its certified Annual Budget. The Board is committed to the development of a service program which can be sustained on a current and realistically projected level of financial support. Available funds must be divided between the continued acquisition of material resources, equitable compensation of personnel, and the requirement of the physical environment in order to provide maximum public service. Gifts and bequests from private donors are encouraged for specific or general purposes.

LIBRARY SERVICES:

The Board endorses the traditional services of selecting, organizing, and maintaining information resources and providing a high quality of staff assistance to the user in finding what is needed, either in the local collection or from other available sources. Effective lending procedures should permit the use of materials at a time and place convenient to the user and insure their return for use by others. Sponsorship of program activities, in or outside of libraries, which contribute to the education, information, or enrichment of the community are a natural part of the library service.

A continuous program of public information should increase citizen awareness of the value of library resources and services. Efforts shall be made to minimize environment and operational barriers to library use and to integrate human and technical resources to achieve the service goals.

Access to information is the key to effective library service. A wide variety of dissemination techniques is endorsed, including institutionalized or homebound; on premise use of resources with assistance from specialized personnel and equipment; borrowing privileges; access to resources of other institutions; and meeting rooms for public use.

Continuous research shall be conducted to identify new community needs, whether of individual or group users, or of the non-user. The Library will accommodate those needs within the limits of financial capability and according to periodically determined priorities.

MATERIAL RESOURCES:

The Library is more than a mere warehouse of books. A wide variety of media should complement and supplement printed materials.

The Library subscribes to the principles of intellectual freedom and the individual's right to read. Under well-defined selection criteria, materials shall be provided:

1. To facilitate the informal self-education of all its citizens;
2. To expand and enrich resources on subjects in which individuals or groups are pursuing formal education.
3. To meet the information needs of the population;
4. To support the educational, civic, and cultural activities of groups and organizations, and
5. To encourage citizens to include the use of the library in their leisure.

The Board shall adopt effective measures to protect library materials and other property from loss, theft, mutilation or other damage. It shall resist efforts by special-interest groups or individuals to control the nature of content of library collections.

PERSONNEL:

The Board believes in the dignity of the individual and of constructive work; it believes in the importance of self-fulfillment. It endeavors to provide an environment conducive to the maximum development of each staff member. It is committed to the equitable treatment of each employee through the development of well-defined policies which include job classification and nondiscrimination because of race, sex, marital status, national origin, age, political opinions or religious beliefs. It believes that affirmative action and equal opportunity provisions, staff development, career advancement, and performance evaluations contribute to job satisfaction and high morale. It believes in a measureable contribution from employees, with financial rewards compatible with other local salary scale or comparable work and training.

The Board encourages staff membership and participation in professional and civic organizations, attendance at conferences and workshops, with paid time allowances and expenses when applicable, and the constant development of inter-agency relationships. It believes in the singular importance of communication with staff and acknowledges the value of staff recommendations affecting personnel operational problems, and it encourages staff attendance at Board meetings.

POLICY ON ISSUING BORROWERS CARD

REGISTRATION FOR:

Residents within the Tri-Township Public Library District:

A person who has established residency within the Tri-Township Public Library District will be issued a borrower's card, upon application, without fee for 2 years. Proof of residency is required and is defined as one of the following:

1. Tax bill
2. Water bill
3. Voter registration card
4. Utility bill
5. Driver's license (with local address)

Renewal of Library Cards:

In order for a patron (District or Non-District) to renew an expired library card(s) the patron must verify the existing information the library has and/or provide a photo ID. In addition to these requirements the patron must pay all of their outstanding fines before their library card can be reactivated.

Non-District Residents:

A person/property owner who maintains his/her residency outside the district's limits, but (as an individual) pays taxes on real estate property within the corporate limits of the library district, (such as living within the Triad School District) will be issued a borrower's card under the same regulations as a District resident, but for 1 year. The privilege is extended to all members of the family residing in the same household (mother, father, children, grandparent, etc.)

A person who maintains his/her residence outside of the library district but is the direct beneficiary of a trust on which real or property tax is paid to the library district will be issued a borrower's card under the same regulations as a city resident.

For persons living outside the library district and who do not qualify for free library privileges, as stated above, a charge will be assessed. The charge for a non-resident card is reviewed annually and may be changed annually. The District wide card flat fee as recommended by Illinois Heartland Library system is determined by the tax bill assessed valuation or per capita population.

Children under age 18:

A child 5 through 17 years of age will, upon application, be issued a borrower's card if the child is listed on the back of the parent or guardian's application card for the initial card and is signed by his parent or guardian. The above residency requirements apply.

NOTE: If the applicant has a member of the family who already has a library card and the address of the family has not been changed since issuance of the card(s), the proof of residency supplied at the time of the application of the family member remains valid. Likewise, children of divorced or separated parents are entitled to a library card per their parent's discretion. Which may result in the child have more than one (1) valid library card.

Replacement cards:

A replacement card will be issued whenever the card's loss is reported to the library. The patron may be asked for some identification. There will be a charge for duplicate cards. (Reference the policy Fees and Deposits in this manual for current charges.)

POLICY FOR OVERDUE, LOST OR DAMAGED LIBRARY MATERIAL

Any patron who has overdue materials and owes fines in excess of $3.00, shall be restricted from checking out additional materials. They will be allowed to come to the library to use the materials in the building until the overdue materials are returned and all fines paid to less than $3.00.

Overdue fines shall be assessed at ten (10) cents per business day per item beginning with the day after the stamped due date, which appears on all material checked out, and includes the day the book is returned. Materials found in the book return shall be considered as having been returned the previous day.

Overdue reports are run weekly, when the library is open. They are cross-checked in the computer to determine if the patron is still delinquent. Notification of patrons concerning overdue materials shall be done primarily by mail, telephone, email or text message (if requested by patron). If the patron does not respond or cannot be reached, after three attempts, a post card will be mailed.

Materials not returned within 28 days of the due date are considered lost and a bill for the items will be processed. The Illinois Heartland Library System operating system generates an overdue notice to which the following is added:

Payment is due upon receipt. If the item(s) have not been returned or payment received within 30 days, borrowing privileges for all household members will be blocked, this bill will be referred to a collection agency, and an additional $20.00 collection agency fee will be charged. Any questions regarding this bill should be addressed to the Library Director, David Cassens, at 667-2133.

If the items have already been returned or payment made, please contact the library to ensure your account has been properly credited.

Black listing a patron occurs once a bill is generated in Polaris. The patron's record in the computer is clearly marked in the notes section as "NO BORROWING UNTIL FINES ARE RESOLVED". If the patron tries to use the library again, this message will block any attempt to check out library materials. Other member libraries honor these messages in the note field as we honor theirs. Any delinquent fees can be taken care of at any member library.

All materials lost or returned in a damaged condition, which cannot be readily repaired, shall be paid for at the replacement cost plus a $5.00 processing fee, in accordance with a policy set forth by the Illinois Heartland Library System. All lost materials that belong to other libraries shall be assessed as per their policy. Replacement cost shall be the cost listed in the "PRICE" field of the POLARIS record of the material in question. The processing fee shall be charged for each item lost or damaged. Fines for damaged materials shall be determined at the Library Director's discretion.

After the overdue, lost or damaged fine is paid, the privilege of checking out books will be restored.

MATERIALS SELECTION POLICY

OBJECTIVES IN MATERIAL SELECTION

The purpose of the Tri-Township Public Library District is to obtain and make conveniently available to all people of the community recreational, educational and informational materials. The Library Director is charged with the responsibility of identifying, ordering and organizing materials that will maintain an up-to-date collection of standard works in all fields of knowledge, which are of permanent value, and timely materials on current issues and items in current demand.

The Board of Trustees believes that the right to read is an important part of the intellectual freedom that is basic to democracy, and hereby adopts these two basic documents of official library policy.

LIBRARY BILL OF RIGHTS

The American Library Association affirms that all libraries are forums for information and ideas, and that the following basic policies should guide their services.

I. Books and other library resources should be provided for the interest, information, and enlightenment of all people of the community the library serves. Materials should not be excluded because of the origin, background, or views of those contributing to their creation.

II. Libraries should provide materials and information presenting all points of view on current and historical issues. Materials should not be proscribed or removed because of partisan or doctrinal disapproval.

III. Libraries should challenge censorship in the fulfillment of their responsibility to provide information and enlightenment.

IV. Libraries should cooperate with all persons and groups concerned with resisting abridgment of free expression and free access to ideas.

V. A person's right to use a library should not be denied or abridged because of origin, age, background, or views.

VI. Libraries that make exhibit spaces and meeting rooms available to the public they serve should make such facilities available on an equitable basis, regardless of the beliefs or affiliations of individuals or groups requesting their use.

Adopted June 19, 1939, by the ALA Council; amended October 14, 1944; June 18, 1948; February 2, 1961; June 27, 1967; January 23, 1980; inclusion of "age" reaffirmed January 23, 1996.

FREEDOM TO READ STATEMENT:

The freedom to read is essential to our democracy. It is continuously under attack. Private groups and public authorities in various parts of the country are working to remove or limit access to reading materials, to censor content in schools, to label "controversial" views, to distribute lists of "objectionable" books or authors, and to purge libraries. These actions apparently rise from a view that our national tradition of free expression is no longer valid; that censorship and suppression are needed to counter threats to safety or national security, as well as to avoid the subversion of politics and the corruption of morals. We, as individuals devoted to reading and as librarians and publishers responsible for disseminating ideas, wish to assert the public interest in the preservation of the freedom to read.

Most attempts at suppression rest on a denial of the fundamental premise of democracy: that the ordinary individual, by exercising critical judgment, will select the good and reject the bad. We trust Americans to recognize propaganda and misinformation, and to make their own decisions about what they read and believe. We do not believe they are prepared to sacrifice their heritage of a free press in order to be "protected" against what others think may be bad for them. We believe they still favor free enterprise in ideas and expression.

These efforts at suppression are related to a larger pattern of pressures being brought against education, the press, art and images, films, broadcast media, and the Internet. The problem is not only one of actual censorship. The shadow of fear cast by these pressures leads, we suspect, to an even larger voluntary curtailment of expression by those who seek to avoid controversy or unwelcome scrutiny by government officials.

Such pressure toward conformity is perhaps natural to a time of accelerated change. And yet suppression is never more dangerous than in such a time of social tension. Freedom has given the United States the elasticity to endure strain. Freedom keeps open the path of novel and creative solutions, and enables change to come by choice. Every silencing of a heresy, every enforcement of an orthodoxy, diminishes the toughness and resilience of our society and leaves it the less able to deal with controversy and difference.

Now as always in our history, reading is among our greatest freedoms. The freedom to read and write is almost the only means for making generally available ideas or manners of expression that can initially command only a small audience. The written word is the natural medium for the new idea and the untried voice from which come the original contributions to social growth. It is essential to the extended discussion that serious thought requires, and to the accumulation of knowledge and ideas into organized collections.

We believe that free communication is essential to the preservation of a free society and a creative culture. We believe that these pressures toward conformity present the danger of limiting the range and variety of inquiry and expression on which our democracy and our culture depend. We believe that every American community must jealously guard the freedom to publish and to circulate, in order to preserve its own freedom to read. We believe that publishers and librarians have a profound responsibility to give validity to that freedom to read by making it possible for the readers to choose freely from a variety of offerings.

The freedom to read is guaranteed by the Constitution. Those with faith in free people will stand firm on these constitutional guarantees of essential rights and will exercise the responsibilities that accompany these rights.

We therefore affirm these propositions:

1. It is in the public interest for publishers and librarians to make available the widest diversity of views and expressions, including those that are unorthodox, unpopular, or considered dangerous by the majority.

Creative thought is by definition new, and what is new is different. The bearer of every new thought is a rebel until that idea is refined and tested. Totalitarian systems attempt to maintain themselves in power by the ruthless suppression of any concept that challenges the established orthodoxy. The power of a democratic system to adapt to change is vastly strengthened by the freedom of its citizens to choose widely from among conflicting opinions offered freely to them. To stifle every nonconformist idea at birth would mark the end of the democratic process. Furthermore, only through the constant activity of weighing and selecting can the democratic mind attain the strength demanded by times like these. We need to know not only what we believe but why we believe it.

2. Publishers, librarians, and booksellers do not need to endorse every idea or presentation they make available. It would conflict with the public interest for them to establish their own political, moral, or aesthetic views as a standard for determining what should be published or circulated.

Publishers and librarians serve the educational process by helping to make available knowledge and ideas required for the growth of the mind and the increase of learning. They do not foster education by imposing as mentors the patterns of their own thought. The people should have the freedom to read and consider a broader range of ideas than those that may be held by any single librarian or publisher or government or church. It is wrong that what one can read should be confined to what another thinks proper.

3. It is contrary to the public interest for publishers or librarians to bar access to writings on the basis of the personal history or political affiliations of the author.

No art or literature can flourish if it is to be measured by the political views or private lives of its creators. No society of free people can flourish that draws up lists of writers to whom it will not listen, whatever they may have to say.

4. There is no place in our society for efforts to coerce the taste of others, to confine adults to the reading matter deemed suitable for adolescents, or to inhibit the efforts of writers to achieve artistic expression.

To some, much of modern expression is shocking. But is not much of life itself shocking? We cut off literature at the source if we prevent writers from dealing with the stuff of life. Parents and teachers have a responsibility to prepare the young to meet the diversity of experiences in life to which they will be exposed, as they have a responsibility to help them learn to think critically for themselves. These are affirmative responsibilities, not to be discharged simply by preventing them from reading works for which they are not yet prepared. In these matters values differ, and values cannot be legislated; nor can machinery be devised that will suit the demands of one group without limiting the freedom of others.

5. It is not in the public interest to force a reader to accept the prejudgment of a label characterizing any expression or its author as subversive or dangerous.

The ideal of labeling presupposes the existence of individuals or groups with wisdom to determine by authority what is good or bad for others. It presupposes that individuals must be directed in making up their minds about the ideas they examine. But Americans do not need others to do their thinking for them.

6. It is the responsibility of publishers and librarians, as guardians of the people's freedom to read, to contest encroachments upon that freedom by individuals or groups seeking to impose their own standards or tastes upon the community at large; and by the government whenever it seeks to reduce or deny public access to public information.

It is inevitable in the give and take of the democratic process that the political, the moral, or the aesthetic concepts of an individual or group will occasionally collide with those of another individual or group. In a free society individuals are free to determine for themselves what they wish to read, and each group is free to determine what it will recommend to its freely associated members. But no group has the right to take the law into its own hands, and to impose its own concept of politics or morality upon other members of a democratic society. Freedom is no freedom if it is accorded only to the accepted and the inoffensive. Further, democratic societies are more safe, free, and creative when the free flow of public information is not restricted by governmental prerogative or self-censorship.

7. It is the responsibility of publishers and librarians to give full meaning to the freedom to read by providing books that enrich the quality and diversity of thought and expression. By the exercise of this affirmative responsibility, they can demonstrate that the answer to a "bad" book is a good one, the answer to a "bad" idea is a good one.

The freedom to read is of little consequence when the reader cannot obtain matter fit for that reader's purpose. What is needed is not only the absence of restraint, but the positive provision of opportunity for the people to read the best that has been thought and said. Books are the major channel by which the intellectual inheritance is handed down, and the principal means of its testing and growth. The defense of the freedom to read requires of all publishers and librarians the utmost of their faculties, and deserves of all Americans the fullest of their support.

We state these propositions neither lightly nor as easy generalizations. We here stake out a lofty claim for the value of the written word. We do so because we believe that it is possessed of enormous variety and usefulness, worthy of cherishing and keeping free. We realize that the application of these propositions may mean the dissemination of ideas and manners of expression that are repugnant to many persons. We do not state these propositions in the comfortable belief that what people read is unimportant. We believe rather that what people read is deeply important; that ideas can be dangerous; but that the suppression of ideas is fatal to a democratic society. Freedom itself is a dangerous way of life, but it is ours.

This statement was originally issued in May of 1953 by the Westchester Conference of the American Library Association and the American Book Publishers Council, which in 1970 consolidated with the American Educational Publishers Institute to become the Association of American Publishers.

Adopted June 25, 1953, by the ALA Council and the AAP Freedom to Read Committee; amended January 28, 1972; January 16, 1991; July 12, 2000; June 30, 2004.

ACCESS

Processing and shelving of materials shall in no way reflect a value judgment of the materials. There will be no labeling of any item to indicate its point of view or bias. All materials will be shelved in the proper order on open shelves, freely and easily accessible to the public.

The library assures free access to its holding for all patrons who are free to select or reject for themselves any item in the collection. Individual or group prejudice about a particular item or type of material in the collection may not preclude its use by others.

Children are not limited to the juvenile collection, although juvenile collections are kept together to facilitate use. Responsibility for a child's reading must rest with the parent or guardian, not with the library.

STATEMENT OF SPECIFIC POLICIES IN SELECTED AREAS

Adult Materials:

1. Fiction: The fiction collection provides books in the English language for the wide range of interest of the general reading public, including classics in the field, titles representing periods of writing and those meeting the popular demand for light reading. Books which are obviously pornographic, which comes with Illinois' definition of obscenity as stated: ("Any material or performance is obscene if: (1) the average person, applying contemporary adult community standards would find that , taken as a whole, it appeals to the prurient interest; and (2) the average person, applying contemporary adult community standards, would find that it depicts or describes, in a patently offensive way, ultimate sexual acts or sadomasochistic sexual acts, whether normal or perverted, actual or simulated, or masturbation, excretory function or lewd exhibition of the genitals; and (3) taken as a whole, it lacks serious literary, artistic, political or scientific value.) – Illinois Compiled Statutes, 1994, Chapter 38, paragraph 11-20b – should be excluded. However, no book should be eliminated because of coarse language, or violence, or frank discussion of sexual episode, any one of which may be objectionable to some people, if the author is justified in what he portrays, or when such episodes are pertinent to the plot or character delineation in a book. It is the library's responsibility to protect the rights of mature readers.

2. Religion: The library attempts to maintain a well-balanced collection representing all the major religions and their sacred scriptures. Authoritative material which introduces and explains the basic concept and practices of the various religions and beliefs is also included. The library does not add materials of a strictly proselytizing nature. The collecting encompasses popular studies on new ideas and movements which are taking place in religion today.

3. Health and Medicine: The library generally purchases standard and popular materials in health, nutrition, hygiene, diseases and medicine that are primarily of interest to persons outside the medical profession. Authoritative, scientific and popular materials about sex are provided for the general reader at various age and reading levels. Books catering to morbid, esoteric or sensational interests do not come within the scope of the collection.

4. Law: The library purchases standard and popular materials which deal with the philosophy of law and particular types of law such as real estate, taxation, marriage and divorce for the lay reader.

Laws and regulations for Illinois as well as the United States as a whole, are included in the collection. Similar material for other countries and states is not included.

5. Politics: In addition to a balanced collection on modern American and international politics and government, the basic documents of all political systems that have influences, and do influence people, should be available to the public. Outright propaganda should be avoided except for a few representative items.

6. Genealogy: The library will cooperate with the Troy Genealogical Society in the development of the collection. The library buys only materials which have general reference value, or which are of value to general readers. Individual family histories are rarely purchased unless they are of outstanding national or local importance. The library will attempt to secure genealogical materials through inter-library loan.

JUVENILE MATERIALS:

The Children's Division selects materials on subjects of interest to and within the comprehension of children from preschool through the eighth grade. A few adult books of interest to students of children's literature, parents, and people working with children are also purchased. These include historical perspectives and evaluations of children's literature, information on children's authors and illustrators, and bibliographies of materials for children.

Graded readers may be bought sparingly for the primary grades. Abridged editions of the classics are purchased only when they retain the quality or flavor of the original.

YOUNG ADULT MATERIAL:

Titles of interest to persons of middle school age through high school are purchased and shelved in the young adult Section. Specialized review sources are consulted as-well-as the standard journals.

General Policy: The library purchases materials in various areas as patron demand warrants and as funds permit.

GIFTS:

The library will encourage and accept gifts with the understanding that gifts of materials will be added to the collection only if they meet the same standard required of purchased materials. Gift materials not meeting those standards, those that are out-of-date, unneeded duplicates of items already owned, or those in a format unsuitable for library use; may be given to other organizations, sold, exchanged or recycled.

Gift items may be marked with an appropriate bookplate. A letter for tax purposes will be given to the donor upon request at the time the donation is made, acknowledging receipt of the gift with its value as determined by the donor. Library staff and trustees shall not set value for a donor. All applicable IRS rules and regulations, as amended, shall be followed in providing receipts.

Whenever a gift is no longer needed, it will be disposed of in the same manner as materials purchased. When memorial materials are no longer needed, they will be returned to the donor, whenever possible.

BOOK WITHDRAWAL POLICY

The Tri-Township Public Library District weeds its materials in order to maintain a relevant collection and control shelf space. Each of the library's collections falls into one of two weeding categories based on its size and the frequency that materials are added. The collections in the Constant Weed Cycle need to be monitored continuously and weeded every one to two years, while the collections in the Occasional Weed Cycle need to be checked sporadically and weeded every three to five years if at all. Collections may be moved from one category to the other based on changes in ordering, shelf space, and patron use. The categories are as follows.

Constant Weed Cycle	Occasional Weed Cycle
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Adult Fiction + Paperbacks • Adult Non-Fiction + Biographies • Young Adult Fiction • Juvenile Fiction • Juvenile Picture Books 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Adult Fiction DVD's • Juvenile Fiction DVD's • Multipart DVD's + Multipart Blu-Rays • Adult Non-Fiction DVD's • Blu-Rays + Video Games • Music CD's • Young Adult Non-Fiction • Juvenile Non-Fiction • Readers + Board Books + Spanish Books • Adult Fiction Audio Books • Adult Non-Fiction Audio Books • Young Adult Audio Books • Juvenile Audio Books • Picture Book and Reader Audio Kits

Within each category, the respective collections have customized weeding criteria based on general standards of number of check-outs and the age of the material. To perform the weed, the employee responsible for weeding will pull a cart full of material from the current collection, check the circulation data in the library system, and submit the cart to the library director for their second opinion. The library director will return the cart with their recommendations. Any materials that were determined to not need to be weed will be re-shelved, and the rest will be withdrawn according to the library's protocols. The employee responsible for weeding should be steadily working through the Constant Weed Cycle. Once they have finished a collection in the Constant Weed Cycle, they evaluate each collection in the Occasional Weed Cycle based upon shelf crowding and the last time it was weeded. If any section appears to need weeding, they should seek the opinion of the library director. If the director agrees that the collection needs weeding, they should start the weed. When the weed is complete, they will proceed to next Constant Weed Cycle collection in the order.

Each collection has its own customized criteria for selecting materials to weed. These criteria should be reviewed at the end of each weed to determine if they are still performing adequately, and strengthened or weakened to maintain a healthy collection.

CHALLENGED MATERIALS

An interpretation of the LIBRARY BILL OF RIGHTS

The American Library Association declares as a matter of firm principle that it is the responsibility of every library to have a clearly defined materials selection policy in written form which reflects the LIBRARY BILL OF RIGHTS, and which is approved by the appropriate governing authority.

Challenged materials which meet the materials selection policy of the library should not be removed under any legal or extra-legal pressure. The LIBRARY BILL OF RIGHTS states in Article 1 that "Materials should not be excluded because of the origin, background, or views of those contributing to their creation," and in Article 2, that "Materials should not be proscribed or removed because of partisan or doctrinal disapproval." Freedom of expressions protected by the constitution of the United States, but constitutionally protected expression is often separated from unprotected expression only by dim and uncertain line. The Constitution requires a procedure designed to focus searchingly on challenged expression before it can be suppressed. An adversary hearing is a part of this procedure.

Therefore, any attempt, be it legal or extra-legal. To regulate or suppress materials in libraries must be closely scrutinized to the end that protected expression is not abridged.

Materials will not be withdrawn from the collection because of pressure, verbal, written or otherwise, without the approval of the Library Board of Trustees. The party making the complaint must be a resident of the Tri-Township Library District or be a valid card holder.

When any patron objects to the presence or absence of any library material, the complaint will be given a hearing. All complaints to staff members will be referred to the Library Director who will discuss the matter with the complainant.

Procedure for Library staff if patron objects to materials in our collection:

1. Staff members should not engage in discussion about the appropriateness of any materials. Refer them to the Library Director, if available.
2. Determine if the person is a resident within the Library's District or has a valid card.
3. Offer the form: "Request for Reconsideration of Library Materials" (appended hereto).
4. No form will be processed without it being filled out completely and signed by the complainant.

If there is a request for withdrawal of materials, it will be reviewed by the Library Director and the Board of Trustees at their next regularly scheduled monthly meeting. A response in writing will be sent to the complainant within five (5) days after the board meeting stating the Board's decision on the "Request for Reconsideration of Library Materials." Under NO circumstances will material be removed from the shelves until the Board so directs.

TRI-TOWNSHIP PUBLIC LIBRARY DISTRICT LOWER LEVEL RENTAL POLICY

The Lower Level of the Tri-Township Public Library District building has two rooms available for rent by the general public: a conference room (seating capacity = 10) and a community room (seating capacity – 120). Library cards are not required for room reservations.

All groups and individuals are subject to a $50 deposit and must sign a rental agreement stating the terms of use in order to hold the reservation. Rooms may be used free of charge once per calendar year by public, non-profit organizations for official functions of the organization. All other users must pay in advance before signing out a key: $25 for the conference room, $100 for the community room (includes use of kitchen).

The deposit will be refunded subject to inspection of the facility after use and return of the library rental key. Call the library for more information, 667-2133.

POLICY STATEMENT

In 1995, a large room downstairs, referred to as the Pat Huck Community Room, a smaller room, referred to as the Leo Lindsay Board Room, and a full service kitchen was included in the construction of the library building with the intention that these rooms will be used by the local community of Troy and its environs for open or private meetings. All non-profit groups/organizations that can demonstrate a commonality of interest in Troy may hold meetings at the library. Meetings held at the Library shall be open to the public. This in no way obligates the group/organization to notify the public of the meeting or specify in any publicity that it is open to the public. Private or social meetings open only to members will be considered closed and subject to the rental fee.

As a major financial contributor to the library the Friends of the Library are allowed use of the Pat Huck Community Room every first Friday and third Saturday of the month.

As the group originally responsible for the formation of the Tri-Township Public Library the Woman's Club of Troy are allowed to use Pat Huck Community Room once a month; with the understanding that library programming takes precedence.

The Library adheres to the American Library Association Bill of Rights, Article VI which states: Libraries which make exhibit spaces and meeting rooms available to the public they serve should make such facilities available on an equitable basis, regardless of the beliefs or affiliations of individuals or groups requesting their use.

The Library Board of Trustees has established a priority of use to eliminate conflicts in scheduling the rooms according to the Library Mission Statement which states that the Library will provide resources that enable citizens to continue learning at any age, encourage the discovery and exploration of a wide range of recreational reading, and provide access to new information technologies. These priorities are listed in order of significance.

1. Library Programs
2. Formal or Informal Instruction
3. Public Meeting Space
4. Fund Raising, with priority given to the Friends of the Library
5. Social or Private Parties or Events that are not open to the general public

CODE OF ETHICS FOR LIBRARY EMPLOYEES

Ethics has been defined as that branch of philosophy dealing with values of human life, concerned with conduct or character approved or disapproved in terms of right and wrong, and based on standards or principles which guide a person in making morally right choices in daily activities.

Every citizen has the right as an individual to take part in public debate or to engage in social and political activity. The only restrictions on these activities are those imposed by specific and well-publicized laws and regulations which are generally applicable. However, since personal views and activities may be interpreted as representative of the institution in which a staff member is employed, proper precaution should be taken to distinguish between private actions and those one is authorized to take in the name of an institution.

The statement which follows sets forth the ethical obligations of individuals as Tri-Township Public Library District staff members.

Staff members have a special responsibility:

To maintain the principles of the ALA Library Bill of Rights and the Freedom to Read Statement.

To learn and execute the policies of the institution of which one is a part and to express in a positive manner any concern or objection with the policies, philosophy or programs of that institution.

To maintain an objective and open attitude of understanding, courtesy, and concern for the patron's and co-worker's needs.

To protect the essential confidential relationship which exists between a library user and the library.

To serve all patrons equally according to their needs.

To make the resources and services of the Library known and easily accessible to all current and potential users.

To carry out those activities assigned under the policies of the Library in a spirit of cooperation.

To avoid any possibility of personal financial gain at the expense of the employing institution.

To be cognizant of the obligations of employment and of what constitutes abuse of working conditions and benefits.

To acknowledge the importance of work done by all staff in all divisions and maintain a sense of loyalty to, and cooperation with, fellow staff members.

SEXUAL HARASSMENT POLICY AND PROCEDURE POLICY

All employees have the right to work in an environment that is free of all forms of harassment. The Tri-Township Public Library District does not condone and will not tolerate any form of employee harassment within the work place and it is the responsibility of each individual employee to refrain from sexual harassment.

All reported incidents of employee harassment shall be dealt with directly and immediate action shall be taken to remedy and prevent any behavior that may be construed as being employee harassment.

OBJECTIVE

To establish guidelines that will ensure a healthy work environment and provide procedures for reporting, investigating and resolving complaints of employee harassment.

DEFINITIONS

A. Employee – The term “employee” shall mean any employee, either Full Time or Part Time, and any volunteer when engaged in authorized Library activities.

B. Sexual Harassment – The term “sexual harassment” shall mean any unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when,

(1) Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of an individual’s employment,

(2) Submission to or rejection of such conduct by an individual is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting such individual, or

(3) Such conduct has the purpose or effect of substantially interfering with an individual’s work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment.

The courts have determined that sexual harassment is a form of discrimination under Title VII of the U.S. Civil Rights Act of 1964, as amended in 1991.

PROHIBITED ACTIVITY

A. No employee shall either explicitly or implicitly ridicule, mock or belittle another person.

B. No employee shall make offensive or derogatory comments or gestures based on race, color, sex, religion, age or national origin either directly or indirectly to another person. Offensive behavior of this nature is considered to be harassment and is a prohibited form of discrimination under State and Federal employment laws. This type of behavior can be verbal or physical in nature, and is considered to be misconduct by any employee of the Tri-Township Public Library District and subject to disciplinary action.

Examples of harassment include but are not limited to the following:

- Verbal: Sexual innuendos, suggestive comments, insults, humor and jokes about sex, anatomy or gender-specific traits, sexual propositions, threats, repeated requests for dates, or statements about other employees, even outside of their presence, of a sexual nature.
- Non-verbal: Suggestive or insulting sounds (whistling), leering, obscene gestures, sexually suggestive bodily gestures, "catcalls", "smacking" or "kissing" noises.
- Visual: Posters, signs, pin-ups or slogans of a sexual nature.
- Physical: Touching, unwelcome hugging or kissing, pinching, brushing the body, coerced sexual intercourse, or actual assault/battery.

EMPLOYEE RESPONSIBILITIES

Each employee is responsible for assisting in the prevention of harassment by:

- Refraining from participating in or encouraging acts of conduct that could be perceived as being harassment.
- Reporting acts of harassment to the offender's supervisor, Library Director, or any Library Trustee.
- Assisting any employee who confides in them that he or she is being harassed by encouraging that person to report the act to a supervisor, Library Director or Library Trustee.

The failure of any employee to take action to stop known harassment shall be grounds for disciplinary actions.

SUPERVISORY/MANAGEMENT RESPONSIBILITIES

Each supervisory/manager is responsible for maintaining the workplace free of sexual harassment and to prevent acts of sexual harassment. This responsibility includes:

- Monitoring the working environment on a daily basis for signs of harassment that may be occurring.
- Counseling all employees on the types of behavior that is prohibited and the Library's procedures for reporting and resolving complaints of harassment.
- Immediately stopping any observed acts of harassment by taking the appropriate steps to intervene, whether or not the involved employees are within their line of supervision or not.
- Taking immediate action to limit the work contact between two employees where there has been a complaint of harassment pending an investigation.

Each supervisor/manager has the responsibility to assist any employee of the library who comes to that supervisor with a complaint of harassment in documenting and filing a complaint with the Board of Trustees.

REPORTING PROCEDURES

Any Employee who either observes or believes himself/herself to be the object of sexual harassment should deal with the incident(s) as directly and firmly as possible by clearly communicating his/her position to the offending employee, to a supervisor/manager and the President of the board of Trustees.

The employee shall document the act(s) of harassment in order to provide the fullest basis for an investigation.

The process for making a complaint about sexual harassment falls into several stages:

- Direct Communication. If there is sexually harassing behavior in the workplace, the harassed employee should directly and clearly express her/his objection that the conduct is unwelcome and request that the offending behavior stop. The initial message may be verbal. If subsequent messages are needed, they should be put in writing in a note or a memo.
- Contact with Supervisory/Managerial Personnel. At the same time direct communication is undertaken, or in the event the employee feels threatened or intimidated by the situation, the problem must be promptly reported to the immediate supervisor or Manager, the problem should be reported to the next level of supervision or the President of the Board of Trustees.
- Formal Written Complaint. An employee may also report incidents of sexual harassment directly to the Library Director or the President of the Board of Trustees. The Director or President will counsel the reporting employee and will be available to assist with filing a formal complaint. The Board of Trustees disciplinary committee will fully investigate the complaint, and advise the complainant and the alleged harasser of the results of the investigation.
- EEOC Resolution Outside Department. It is the goal of the Library to resolve sexual harassment complaints and incidents within the Library. However, an employee has the right to contact the Illinois Department of Human Rights (IDHR) or the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) about filing a formal complaint. An IDHR complaint must be filed within 180 days after the alleged incident(s) unless it is a continuing offense. A complaint with EEOC must be filed within 180 days.

FALSE AND FRIVOLOUS COMPLAINTS.

False and frivolous charges refer to cases where the accuser is using a sexual harassment complaint to accomplish some end other than stopping sexual harassment. It does not refer to charges made in good faith which cannot be proven. Given the seriousness of the consequences for the accused, a false and frivolous charge is a severe offense that can itself result in disciplinary action, or termination.

TRI-TOWNSHIP PUBLIC LIBRARY DISTRICT FUND INVESTMENT POLICY

Adopted: October 1, 2019

1. Purpose

This policy provides information on the investment policy, philosophy and guidelines that provide for the maintenance and enhancement of the investment portfolio of the Tri-Township Public Library District Fund.

2. Annual Review

It is expected that this Investment Policy will be reviewed annually by the Tri-Township Public Library District Board of Trustees to ensure the relevance of its contents to current market conditions, compliance with Illinois Compiled Statutes (30 ILCS 235/) Public Funds Investment Act, and the needs of the Board.

3. Board Responsibilities

a. The Library Director and Board Treasurer will have discretionary authority to sign all documents with the Investment Manager. Signatures of both parties will be required on all documents before any investment portfolio can be instituted or changed.

b. The Board is responsible for maintaining sufficient funds to operate the library for the fiscal year. The Board may choose to invest any excess revenue from either the General Fund or Building Fund.

i. Any excess revenue in the Building Fund may be invested to increase revenue for expansion or improvements to the current building in order to prevent incurring unnecessary debt. A minimum of $250,000 must remain in the Building Fund for normal operation and repairs.

ii. Any excess revenue in the General Fund may be invested in short term Certificates of Deposit not to exceed 1 year in length. This revenue will be used to cover any shortfalls of daily operations not covered by current income.

c. The Board must vote on the amount of the investment and the length of the investment, not to exceed 3 years per (30 ILCS 235/2) Section 2. Authorized Investments (a) (4).

d. The Board must vote on the type of investment portfolio that will be established and maintained for the investment period. This portfolio may be either Laddered Brokered CDs or Fixed Income Portfolio (i.e. Money Market, US Treasury Notes & Federal Agencies with an A rating) or a combination of the two.

e. Should an immediate need arise before the next scheduled Board Meeting, an Emergency Board Meeting will be called to address those needs.

4. Investment Goals

a. The corpus of the fund should be preserved over time. Additional contributions to the fund will come from future donations and from 100% of the interest and dividend earnings each year net of investment expense (i.e. total interest, dividends, and capital appreciation reduced by management fees and transaction costs). The funds should be invested so as to generate sufficient interest and/ or dividend income to adequately meet all awarded grants and other financial commitments made by the Board.

b. The current revenue needs of the Fund are $90,000, and are subject to change as the Board deems necessary. The Board will inform the Investment Manager at the annual meeting when/ if this amount is to be modified.

c. Assets of the portfolio may be invested in mutual funds or in direct investments, or a combination of the two. Assets will typically be diversified among high quality stocks and bonds, however, additional asset classes may be included when it is reasonable to expect the additional asset class will either increase return or reduce risk of the entire portfolio, or both.

5. Responsibility for Investments

a. The Board may call upon the expertise of professional investment managers for advice on the investment of funds.

b. The Investment Manager shall exercise full discretionary authority as to all buy, hold, and sell decisions for each security under management, subject to any further direction provided by the Board. The Investment Manager will make recommendations for changes in the requirements, guidelines and standards of performance to which it is being held.

6. Reporting

a. The Investment Manager shall provide a statement at the end of each month describing the portfolio asset class weightings, individual security positions showing both cost and market value, and all principal cash transactions, including buys and sells in sufficient descriptive detail.

b. For comparative purposes, the Investment Manager shall measure and report to the Board the portfolio's performance with respect to the Board's fiscal year to date and the preceding three, twelve, and thirty-six month periods. With respect to each measurement period, the Investment Manager shall calculate and report the performance benchmark for the portfolio, also identifying the difference between the portfolio's performance and its performance benchmark.

7. Review Meeting and Communication

a. The Investment Manager will participate in a review meeting with the Board annually, or as the Board requests otherwise, to:

- Review the investment program and investment results

11. Provide a synopsis of the key investment decisions made by the Investment Manager, its rationale, and how those decisions could affect future results; and

iii. Provide an investment outlook, identify specific investment decisions this outlook may trigger, and describe how these decisions could affect future results.

b. The Investment Manager shall maintain frequent, open communication with the Board on all material matters pertaining to investment policies and the management of the funds. Specifically, the Investment Manager shall:

1. Provide prompt notice of any material changes in its investment outlook, strategy, or portfolio structure;

11. Provide prompt notice of material changes in its ownership, organizational structure, financial condition, senior staffing or management.

8. Social and Ethical Responsibility in Investments

a. Investment decisions and the exercise of social and ethical responsibility require that wherever feasible, the Investment Manager will refrain from investing in corporations whose primary activities include gambling, alcohol, tobacco, or are prurient in nature.

b. The Board will not participate in Shareholder Resolution Programs or allow its name to be listed as being for or against any such resolution except as instructed by formal vote of the Board.

9. Types of Investments

a. The portfolio will be invested in accordance with the State of Illinois Public Funds Investment Act, (30 ILCS 235) Section 2. Authorized Investments to include Fixed Income assets as follows:

1. No purchase of domestic or foreign equity investment may be made in the portfolio.

outstanding obligations and (iii) no more than one-third of the public agency's funds may be invested in short term obligations of corporations; or

(5) in money market mutual funds registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940, provided that the portfolio of any such money market mutual fund is limited to obligations described in paragraph (1) or (2) of this subsection and to agreements to repurchase such obligations.

(a-1) In addition to any other investments authorized under this Act, a municipality, park district, forest preserve district, conservation district, county, or other governmental unit may invest its public funds in interest bearing bonds of any county, township, city, village, incorporated town, municipal corporation, or school district, of the State of Illinois, of any other state, or of any political subdivision or agency of the State of Illinois or of any other state, whether the interest earned thereon is taxable or tax-exempt under federal law. The bonds shall be registered in the name of the municipality, park district, forest preserve district, conservation district, county, or other governmental unit, or held under a custodial agreement at a bank. The bonds shall be rated at the time of purchase within the 4 highest general classifications established by a rating service of nationally recognized expertise in rating bonds of states and their political subdivisions.

(b) Investments may be made only in banks which are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. Any public agency may invest any public funds in short term discount obligations of the Federal National Mortgage Association or in shares or other forms of securities legally issuable by savings banks or savings and loan associations incorporated under the laws of this State or any other state or under the laws of the United States. Investments may be made only in those savings banks or savings and loan associations the shares, or investment certificates of which are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation. Any such securities may be purchased at the offering or market price thereof at the time of such purchase. All such securities so purchased shall mature or be redeemable on a date or dates prior to the time when, in the judgment of such governing authority, the public funds so invested will be required for expenditure by such public agency or its governing authority. The expressed judgment of any such governing authority as to the time when any public funds will be required for expenditure or be redeemable is final and conclusive. Any public agency may invest any public funds in dividend-bearing share accounts, share certificate accounts or class of share accounts of a credit union chartered under the laws of this State or the laws of the United States; provided, however, the principal office of any such credit union must be located within the State of Illinois. Investments may be made only in those credit unions the accounts of which are insured by applicable law.

(c) For purposes of this Section, the term "agencies of the United States of America" includes: (i) the federal land banks, federal intermediate credit banks, banks for cooperative, federal farm credit banks, or any other entity authorized to issue debt obligations under the Farm Credit Act of 1971 (12 U.S.C. 2001 et seq.) and Acts amendatory thereto; (ii) the federal home loan banks and the federal home loan mortgage corporation; and (iii) any other agency created by Act of Congress.

(d) Except for pecuniary interests permitted under subsection (f) of Section 3-14-4 of the Illinois Municipal Code or under Section 3.2 of the Public Officer Prohibited Practices Act, no person acting as treasurer or financial officer or who is employed in any similar capacity by or for a public agency may do any of the following:

(3) receive, in any manner, compensation of any kind from any investments in which the agency is authorized to invest.

(e) Any public agency may also invest any public funds in a Public Treasurers' Investment Pool created under Section 17 of the State Treasurer Act. Any public agency may also invest any public funds in a fund managed, operated, and administered by a bank, subsidiary of a bank, or subsidiary of a bank holding company or use the services of such an entity to hold and invest or advise regarding the investment of any public funds.

(f) To the extent a public agency has custody of funds not owned by it or another public agency and does not otherwise have authority to invest such funds, the public agency may invest such funds as if they were its own. Such funds must be released to the appropriate person at the earliest reasonable time, but in no case exceeding 31 days, after the private person becomes entitled to the receipt of them. All earnings accruing on any investments or deposits made pursuant to the provisions of this Act shall be credited to the public agency by or for which such investments or deposits were made, except as provided otherwise in Section 4.1 of the State Finance Act or the Local Governmental Tax Collection Act, and except where by specific statutory provisions such earnings are directed to be credited to and paid to a particular fund.

(g) A public agency may purchase or invest in repurchase agreements of government securities having the meaning set out in the Government Securities Act of 1986, as now or hereafter amended or succeeded, subject to the provisions of said Act and the regulations issued thereunder. The government securities, unless registered or inscribed in the name of the public agency, shall be purchased through banks or trust companies authorized to do business in the State of Illinois.

(h) Except for repurchase agreements of government securities which are subject to the Government Securities Act of 1986, as now or hereafter amended or succeeded, no public agency may purchase or invest in instruments which constitute repurchase agreements, and no financial institution may enter into such an agreement with or on behalf of any public agency unless the instrument and the transaction meet the following requirements:

(1) The securities, unless registered or inscribed in the name of the public agency, are purchased through banks or trust companies authorized to do business in the State of Illinois.

(2) An authorized public officer after ascertaining which firm will give the most favorable rate of interest, directs the custodial bank to "purchase" specified securities from a designated institution. The "custodial bank" is the bank or trust company, or agency of government, which acts for the public agency in connection with repurchase agreements involving the investment of funds by the public agency. The State Treasurer may act as custodial bank for public agencies executing repurchase agreements. To the extent the Treasurer acts in this capacity, he is hereby authorized to pass through to such public agencies any charges assessed by the Federal Reserve Bank.

(3) A custodial bank must be a member bank of the Federal Reserve System or maintain accounts with member banks. All transfers of book-entry securities must be accomplished on a Reserve Bank's computer records through a member bank of the Federal Reserve System. These securities must be credited to the public agency on the records of the custodial bank and the transaction must be confirmed in writing to the public agency by the custodial bank.

(4) Trading partners shall be limited to banks or trust companies authorized to do business in the State of Illinois or to registered primary reporting dealers.

(5) The security interest must be perfected.

(6) The public agency enters into a written master repurchase agreement which outlines the basic responsibilities and liabilities of both buyer and seller.

(7) Agreements shall be for periods of 330 days or less.

(8) The authorized public officer of the public agency informs the custodial bank in writing of the maturity details of the repurchase agreement.

(9) The custodial bank must take delivery of and maintain the securities in its custody for the account of the public agency and confirm the transaction in writing to the public agency. The Custodial Undertaking shall provide that the custodian takes possession of the securities exclusively for the public agency; that the securities are free of any claims against the trading partner; and any claims by the custodian are subordinate to the public agency's claims to rights to those securities.

(10) The obligations purchased by a public agency may only be sold or presented for redemption or payment by the fiscal agent bank or trust company holding the obligations upon the written instruction of the public agency or officer authorized to make such investments.

(11) The custodial bank shall be liable to the public agency for any monetary loss suffered by the public agency due to the failure of the custodial bank to take and maintain possession of such securities.

(i) Notwithstanding the foregoing restrictions on investment in instruments constituting repurchase agreements the Illinois Housing Development Authority may invest in, and any financial institution with capital of at least $250,000,000 may act as custodian for, instruments that constitute repurchase agreements, provided that the Illinois Housing Development Authority, in making each such investment, complies with the safety and soundness guidelines for engaging in repurchase transactions applicable to federally insured banks, savings banks, savings and loan associations or other depository institutions as set forth in the Federal Financial Institutions Examination Council Policy Statement Regarding Repurchase Agreements and any regulations issued, or which may be issued by the supervisory federal authority pertaining thereto and any amendments thereto; provided further that the securities shall be either (i) direct general obligations of, or obligations the payment of the principal of and/or interest on which are unconditionally guaranteed by, the United States of America or (ii) any obligations of any agency, corporation or subsidiary thereof controlled or supervised by and acting as an instrumentality of the United States Government pursuant to authority granted by the Congress of the United States and provided further that the security interest must be perfected by either the Illinois Housing Development Authority, its custodian or its agent receiving possession of the securities either physically or transferred through a nationally recognized book entry system.

(j) In addition to all other investments authorized under this Section, a community college district may invest public funds in any mutual funds that invest primarily in corporate investment grade or global government short term bonds. Purchases of mutual funds that invest primarily in global government short term bonds shall be limited to funds with assets of at least $100 million and that are rated at the time of purchase as one of the 10 highest classifications established by a recognized rating service. The investments shall be subject to approval by the local community college board of trustees. Each community college board of trustees shall develop a policy regarding the percentage of the college's investment portfolio that can be invested in such funds.

Nothing in this Section shall be construed to authorize an intergovernmental risk management entity to accept the deposit of public funds except for risk management purposes.

PROGRAMS POLICY

This policy pertains to the various programs that the Tri-Township Public Library District conducts throughout the year.

If only one (1) patron shows up to an event then that event will either be cancelled or rescheduled for another time to encourage larger attendance. There must be at least two (2) patrons not including the staff member conducting the event present for the program to proceed as planned.

This includes when board members or other designated volunteers lead a program.

This is done to ensure the safety of the staff at the Tri-Township Public Library District as well as the public that attends the various programs that the library offers.

DISRUPTIVE PATRON POLICY

Disruptive behavior is any behavior on library premises which infringes on the rights and enjoyments of others using the library. This includes, but is not limited to:

- Disruptive or unsafe behavior which may disturb other patrons' privacy and solitude, cause injury, or damage library property. Examples include running, climbing, pushing and shoving, and throwing things.
- Loud or unnecessary noise. This includes noise created by cell phones and other devices. (Library-sponsored activities are sometimes noisy by necessity.)
- Inappropriate, foul or vulgar language.
- Harassment or threats to library patrons, volunteers or staff, including but not limited to stalking, intimidating, prolonged staring, and harassing behavior related to use of the Internet.
- Leaving young children unattended or unsupervised in violation of the Unattended Child Policy.
- Soliciting or begging in the library or on library property.
- Using the restrooms for laundry or bathing.
- Entering into the Library barefoot or removing one's footwear while in the Library, or being otherwise attired so as to be disruptive to the Library environment.
- Using tobacco products or e-cigarettes inside the library or within 15 feet of the entrance, windows that open, or ventilation.
- Eating in the library except during library-approved activities.
- Carrying a weapon in the library or on library property (unless authorized by law.)
- Violating any policy or procedure regarding the use of the library's computers or the Internet.
- Inappropriate displays of affection.
- Failing to comply with a reasonable staff request.

Staff Procedures

1. Give a verbal warning to the patron indicating that such behavior is disruptive to other library users and is unacceptable.

2. If the disruptive behavior continues, give a second warning, and if the patron is a minor, approach the parent/ guardian with the same warning.

3. If the disruptive behavior still continues, approach the patron or parent/guardian of a minor, if in the building.

A. If the patron is 10 years or older, ask the patron to leave the library premises.

B. Request the parent/guardian to escort the child from the library premises.

4. If the child is younger than ten years of age and unattended, follow the procedures outlined under UNATTENDED CHILDREN OR DISRUPTIVE CHILDREN POLICY.

5. If the patron's disruptive behavior continues and he/she refuses to leave library premises, or if the parent/ guardian will not escort child from library premises, library staff will call the Police (911 for emergency situations, or 618-667-6731 for non-emergency situations).

6. If the Police are notified the staff must fill out an incident report to submit to the director of the library.

7. If there is damage, when possible use a camera or cell phone to document it.

8. If there is a pattern of behavior over time, other actions may be taken as necessary to ensure the enjoyment of the library by all members of the community.

Friends and relatives of library staff members are governed by the same policy.

UNATTENDED OR DISRUPTIVE CHILDREN POLICY

The Tri-Township Public Library District welcomes children to use its facilities and services. However, responsibility for children using the library rests with the parent/guardian or assigned chaperone, not with library personnel.

UNATTENDED CHILDREN

The Tri-Township Public Library District will not be responsible for children left unattended in the library.

Children should only be left unattended at a library sponsored event if they are ten (10) years old or older.

Children under the age of ten (10) should always be accompanied by a parent/guardian or sibling/relative aged twelve (12) years or older.

All children using the library are subject to the policies and procedures adopted by the Tri-Township Public Library District concerning behavior and conduct.

Staff Procedures

If it is thirty minutes or less until closing time, or the unattended child becomes distraught (visibly upset while left unattended), library staff may if necessary, use the following procedures in order to resolve the situation.

1. Try to identify the child and locate the parent or responsible person. Walk through the building with the child and/or page the child's parent using the parent's name or the child's name. If no name is available, describe the child's physical appearance.

2. If the parent is not located within thirty minutes (ten minutes if the library is closing), library staff and/or child will attempt to locate the parent/guardian by telephone, utilizing library records, telephone directories, or other sources available, if necessary.

3. If, after exhausting all sources, no contact has been made with the parent/guardian the staff member will call the Troy Police Department (618-667-6731) when the incident occurs within the library or on library property, a staff member should stay with the child until the proper authorities arrive. Under no circumstances is staff to transport a child to another location.

Children playing or loitering outside the library do so without library supervision.

DISRUPTIVE CHILDREN

Disruptive behavior is any behavior on library premises which infringes on the rights of others using the library. Such behavior will not be allowed to interfere with library service to others. Disruptive children will be approached in the following manner by library staff on duty.

Staff Procedures

1. Give a verbal warning to the child indicating that such behavior is disruptive to other library users and is unacceptable.

Staff and/or security may skip to the procedure listed under number three (3) below if circumstances warrant.

2. If the disruptive behavior continues, give a second warning and approach the parent/guardian with the same warning.

3. When the disruptive behavior continues approach parent/guardian if in the building.

A. Request the parent/guardian to escort the child from library premises.

B. If the child is unattended and twelve years of age or older, ask the child to leave library premises.

C. If the child is younger than twelve years of age and unattended; follow the procedures outlined under UNATTENDED CHILDREN above.

4. If the child's disruptive behavior continues and he/she refuses to leave the premises, or if the parent/guardian will not escort the child from library premises, library staff will call the Police (911 emergency, 618-667-6731 non-emergency).

5. If the police are called staff must fill out an Incident Report and submit it to the library director.

Ejecting a patron from the library-1 day, 1 week, 1 month or permanently

- Staff has the authority to eject a patron if the patron has violated tenants of the policy manual and after staff has followed the "staff procedures" described above.
- Suspension of library use privileges may be a day for a first offense and/or behavior that does not endanger other people (e.g. noise, loitering, and intoxication); and longer (from one week up to one month) for subsequent offenses and for threatening, harassing, unsafe or illegal behavior. The Director has the authority to determine the length of the suspension.
- The Director or Circulation Supervisor will alert library staff by email and insert a block in the patron's library record disallowing library use until the date noted.
- The Director will mail a letter to adult patrons or to minor's parent if the suspension of library use privilege is for more than one week.

- A patron could be permanently banned from the library if they assault a fellow patron or a staff member. Action of this sort will resort in contacting the police immediately (911). Upon being ejected from the premises the status of the offending patron's eligibility will be discussed with the board of trustees during the next board meeting.

Repeat Offender

If a patron is a "repeat offender" which means they continually break library policy and have been evicted from the library before then the director may revoke library privileges permanently regarding the patron in question. The director will then notify the staff of the decision and place the appropriate blocks on the patron's account. If the repeat offender is a minor the director will notify the parent or guardian of the minor and explain the reason(s) why they are banned from the library.

The Director will also notify the board of trustees of this decision at the next monthly board meeting.

Appealing

If a patron wishes to appeal a decision made by the director in removing a ban on their access to the library they can submit a letter of appeals to the board of trustees describing why they think the decision was made in error and why the ban should be lifted. The board of trustees will then discuss the appeal at the next monthly board meeting. The Board of Trustees will have the final say if the ban stands or is repealed.

To submit a letter of appeals please address the letter to "The Board of Trustees" 209 S. Main St., Troy IL 62294.
